

2016
Camp Comedy
July 10 - July 16

Think you're ready for a stand-up comedy gig? Then, you're in the right place! Here's the perfect opportunity to practice your own sketch comedy and improv and get tips on how to actually be funny without really trying.

Under the direction of an experienced professional comedic writer and actor, you'll learn the basics of improvisation, writing, and performance, and refine your on-stage skills. Plus, all campers will create their own comedy sketch to perform at the closing campfire. So, if you're ready to have the crowd bursting at the seams with laughter, then come on, the crowd's all yours!

What to look forward to:

- 2 hours of creativity each day as you develop your comedic voice
- Fun and exciting improv & comedy games
- Experienced professional comedic writer and actor
- Performing at the Friday night Closing Campfire

What to bring:

- Just the normal camp stuff. No extra equipment is required.
