

Come for a Free Week at Camp Anokijig!

Camp Anokijig is proud to announce scholarship opportunities for Racine County
Summer camp weeks: June 11-17, June 18-24 or July 2-8, 2023.*
Weeks awarded based on availability*

Questions? Email allisons@anokijig.net or call (920) 893-0782

Knighthood Essay Contest

Knighthood is an Anokijig Honor Society that values service to self, others, and higher values.
Multiple essay writers will get the chance to come to a full week of 2023 summer camp!

Deadline for submissions: February 25, 2023

Eligibility:

- Must be age 7-16
- Must live in and/or go to school in Racine County

Essay Prompts (Pick One):

NOTE: Younger students may draw a picture to illustrate their answer

- Honesty can be difficult sometimes. Tell us about a time you told the truth, even when it was not easy.
- Responsibility is an important value for any successful individual. Tell us about a time you showed responsibility.
- Courage comes in many different forms: the courage to act, the courage to speak up, the courage to step forward, etc.. Tell us about a time you showed courage or you were inspired by someone else's courage.

Submission Info:

1. Submit your essay at www.anokijig.com/essaycontest

OR

2. Email allisons@anokijig.net. Please include: student's name, age, sex, current grade, a parent/guardian name, address, phone number, and email.

Other Scholarship Opportunities:

Additional scholarship opportunities available on our website: www.anokijig.com/campership or call the Camp Office at (920) 893-0782